A REMOVAL THAT IS INTERESTING TO ALL. We venture the statement that there is not an inhabitant of Stark county but what believes, as we do, that even merchants, as well as clergymen or professional men, should practice what they preach A merchant that endeavors to sell his customers clothing under the ONE PRICE role, that was established by his predecessor in the storeroom that he now occupies, and then allows customers to beat him down from the original price asked, is truly sailing under false colors and does not practice what he preaches. It is an indisputable fact that Sam Gunsberg was the originator of the "One Price System," and that the lowest, in the city, and it is also s well known fact that he still adheres to it and carries the best selected stock of Genta, Youths' and Boy's Beady Made Clothing in Stark county, the pretentions of the corner establishment, now occupying the room formerly occupied by Gunzberg's Mammoth One Price Store to the contrary notwithstand ing. Gunzhero's Original and Only One Price Clothing Store will be found at the Red Front, No. 6 east side Public Square. Remember the place and do not allow yourselves to be deceived by any party that does not practice what they preach.

ECLIPSE OF THE MOON .- Owing to the moon light and bright clear sky Saturday night, many persons in the city waited to see the Eclipse of the moon and were repaid for their trouble. The eclipse, which was visible throughout the United States, was a handsome spectacle, and many star gazers who had seen the moon many times pass ing into and out of the earth's shadow-declared it to be one of the finest that they had ever seen, so clearly defined was each part of the progress of the event. The beginning of the immersion of the moon was in the longitude of Wash ington at 12:03 and in San Francisco at 10:04. The duration of the totality was one hour and twenty minutes, and the immersion at the climax of the observation was so complete that the moon an peared like a large black spot enshrouded on all sides by a hazy halo. In New York and other large cities the moon was photographed in the different stages of the eclipse.

RESOLUTIONS. Resolved, That the Democratic party through out our land is the political organization devoted to the Constitution and the Union, in order to establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, pro-vide for the common defense, promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty. Resolved, That the mission of the Democratic party depends not for success on sectional agitation or special legislation, that builds up tayored monopolies at the expense of labor. Resolved, That the power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises is conferred upon Congress for the purpose of collecting revenue to pay the debts of and carry on the Government, not to plunder the people and build up Resolved, that the star-route frauds and the developments of the rascality and dishonesty of the custodians of the Treasury at Washington show again that the Republican party is corrupt as ever it was in the days of Grantism, notwithstanding the claims made for the piety and purity of the Hayes fraud administration. Resolved, That the arrangement in the Senate of the United States with Mahone, the leader of the Repudiation party of Virginia, and the bitter feud raging between the Stalwarts and Garfield Blaine-Half breeds, demonstrates that Republicans wish to rule, not for the good of the country but merely to gain the spoils of office, and these same events show a condition of things in the Republican party, that betokens its downfail and should encourage the Democratic party and the people in their efforts to restore honest government to the country. Resolved, That the course of the late Republican Legislature of Ohio demonstrates again the difficulty to carry out in practice false promises made to obtain votes and secure power, on the principle that the end justifies the means. Resolved. That the Democracy of Stark county expect to take a hand and do full duty in refeeming Ohio in October from the grasp of Chas. The Rise and Fall of the Southern Confeders cy by Jefferson Bavis is the only complete work of the kind published since the war. It is the missing link in the history of the Republic, from the fact that Jeff Davis had in his possession the archives of the Southern Confederacy, which were absolutely necessary for the compilation of a complete, accurate, and thorough history of the late civil war. The fact that the well known house of D. Appleton & Co. is publishing this history, is proof that it is something the American people want. Politicians and reading men of both the great political parties buy it, because no other work can give the full particulars in all its details. Whatever the people of the North may think of Jeff Davis as a man, his ability as a writer cannot be questioned, and his work is a matter of history and not of opinion, hence nonpartisan. The work is sold only by subscription. Messrs, W. Dieler and Frank Braucher are Appleton's authorized agents for the townships of Canton, Plain, Lake, Ms lboro, Nimishillen, Osnaburg, Sandy, Paris, Washington and Lexingon, and will soon begin a thorough canvass.

It begins to appear that Canton is deetined to become a prominent dry goods market, it being located in the center of a wealthy and well cultivated territory, which has not yet been thoroughly and systematically worked by men of experience and energy, as it has been in other sections. We would say to the trade of Canton and vicinity, that among the many new enterprises in Canton, you will find the new dry goods house of G. W. Smith & Co., No 45 East Tuscarawas street with one of the finest selections in the city. Customers will find their time well spent by calling and examining their stock.

the Connotton company in this city had his right foot badly crushed about 1 o'clook Monday afternoon. He was in the act of boarding a moving train on the Connotton at the PFW & CRR crossing, when he lost his grasp with one hand and was dragged a short distance with his right foot under the wheel. The injured mar was taken to his residence near the Connetton round house, where D s. Johnson and Walker ampuisted the four smaller toes. Better is a married man and removed some months ago to Canton from Onelda.

There is but one James Robinson in the show business. He is the original great and only bareback Equestrian Champion, and rides in Sells Brothers' grandly great ci cus.

A slight fire in the roof of John Offalter's residence on south Cherry street called out the Deest and will timed. The first ballot resulted as partment Tuesday evening. It was extinguished

After an absence of more than a year, Dr. F. E. oung has returned to Canton and opened his office in the new Empire block, corner Tuscarawas and Walnut streets. Dr. Young graduated in medicine at Cincinnati, and practiced seven years successfully in Stark county, and in the past year has been in Cleveland and the east. where he took regular post graduate courses, in addition to special branches, for the purpose of making himself still more proficient in his obasen protession.

JOHN ROBINSON'S BIG SHOW - A FUNNY BILL

It is said competition is the life of trade, and when circuses come in competition, it is like Greek meeting Greek. Old John Robinson's force of men have been here for the past week posting their bills all over the city and county announcing the arrival of his big show, which is to show here Thursday, June 23. Ou their arrival here they found that bills had been circuisted stating that no big show would appear until the 29th, whereupon Mr. Joseph, the agent of old John Robinson's big show got out the following funny bill "The New Bevised; A Guide for the People;

Mistakes Corrected. Whose is it? old Join Robinson's. When does it come? Thursday, June 23. Where at? Why to Canton. His big show. Are you sure? Sure as g in's iron. Hasn't changed time? No; coming sure, Thursday, June 23. Ain't coming June 297 Not coming June 29, Well, stranger, ain't you wrong? Wrong, nowhy? Because we heard so. Heard so-how Why, that circular. What circular are you talk ing about? Why that circular some chaps have been posting over the country saying that no big circus would be in Canton until June 29. Well that's a mistake. Mistake how? Why about the big show not coming to Canton. It will be here June 234, you bet. Now, no foolin' mister, 'cause I want to know, Well, I sin't foolin' worth a bent. Then it will be here June 23? Yes, sure as Jim Garfield is President. Now, hold your horses a minute, I'm not talking politics I'm talking about Robinson's great big show. So am Do you say certain it will be in Cauton, Tnurs day, June 231. Hain't I told you so a dozen times? And it won't be in Canton, June 297 It won't be in Canton, June 29. Well, stranger, I'm kind o' glad to hear that, for, up in our neighborhood we got things kinder mixed after read ing that bill we thought old John had changed his time. Well, you just rest easy. His big show will be at Canton, June 28 f. He never changes his dates. Tell you what I wish you'd do for me. What's that? Why just write down what you told me, so I can tell the folks, will you? Well, I'll do better than that, I'll just get a few circulars printed so that the people will know when the big show comes. Good, just do that and give the facts plain, will you? Yes, I'll tell. them the truth. What will you say? Well, I'll say that the big show comes to Canton on Thurs day, June 28 1. That's buily; that ain't all, is it? No; I'll just tell them that the big circus we've all been talking about is not coming to Canton on June 29; that the entire big show will come Thursday, June 23 1; that'll ease their minds, and fix things clear, won't it? I hope so. Say, stranger. What is it now? When will you get them. bills printed? Oh! 'bout an hour, why? 'Cause I thought I'd like to get some to give the folks out our neighborhood, then they could see for themselves. Well, come and get some; you can have them in an hour. Can I, thank 'e. I'll just Stow away a few under my wagon seat and scatter them for you. Thanks; they'll be ready in an hour; good day. Say, stranger, this is kind o' funny, ain't it? Funny, what do you mean? Why, those chaps trying to SELL us folks by getting out that bill about the show not coming. Oh! they didn't mean any harm. Well, if they did, it don't amount to much now, for you bet everybody wants to see old John Robinson's big show; and they'll be on hand Thursday, June 23. sure as Gospel; particularly when they know that the big show of his will not come June 29th. I say friend, be sure to be in time for the great procession, and remember Thursday, June 284, Ha! ha! ha! but it's funny. What makes you so jully? I can't help it. I'm just thinking im chaps want to wear buckskin trousers the next time they try to alt down on the business end of a wasp!"

CRYSTAL WEDDING PARTY.

On the evening of the 14th Doctor and Mrs Slusser celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their mar-riage union, by inviting, not all their friends, but as many as their large house and grounds would give s'anding room. There were quite a number of ladies and gentlemen from a distance, and to every appearance, all seemed to enjoy themseles. The refreshments were most palatable and admirably served, As many as could get within hearing distance were delighted with the music rendered by Mrs Raynolds, Miss Huntington and Mr Hickok. Dr and Mrs Slus ger were the recipients of a large collection of glass mementos as well as of many congratulations, verhal and by letter. May they live long to enjoy more wedding anniversaries, and greet their friends with the same evident satisfaction.

DIED.

SNYDER—At his residence, in Tuscarawas township, Stark county, on the 2d inst., Mr. Sam-uel Snyder, aged 69 years, 7 months and 20 days. The deceased was an old resident of Tuscarawas township, having lived there for a period of l years. He was born in Lancaster county, Pa., in 1811, and came with his parents to the place where he died, living, with the exception of two years, on the same farm. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of relations, friends and neighbors, showing the hold deceased had on their sympathies. He was a man of many excellent qualities, and an industrious, worthy and respected citizen. He became a member of the Lutheran church at the age of nineteen and lived an exemplary christian life. His wife and five children preceded him in death, leaving but two of the family, who, with a large circle of neighbors, deeply mourn his loss, SCHWALM—At his residence on East Tuscars-was street, Saturday morning, from the result of a congestive chill, Mr John J Schwalm, aged about 39 rears. Mr Schwalm was a resident of Canton and Canton township since his birth, and for a number of years past was engaged in the wholesale liquor business in this city. His remains were buried from the 84 John's Catholic church Monday morning, the French Mutual Ald Society attending the services, KAUFMAN —At Plymouth, Ind. on the 2nd inst., after a brief illness of only four days, John Kaufman, sged 81 years.

The deceased was a former resident of Canton and one of the early settlers, having come to Canton from Germany in about 1834 and removed to Plymouth, Ind., about 1850. He leaves nine chitdren, among whom is Mrs George Rigier of this city, and many grand children to mourn his death.
